Art Unit: 1755

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 27 August 2007 has been entered.

Election~Restriction

Applicant's election of claims 1-29 and 31-44 in the reply filed on December 22, 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 45-71 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on December 22, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-29, 31-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakaoka (US 5,686,374).

Nakaoka discloses a catalyst containing zeolite Y, alumina, and zinc oxide. See the abstract. The catalyst contains less than 0.5 wt% Na₂O, which overlaps the amount of Na₂O recited in instant claims 2-7, 29 and 33-36. See the abstract. Overlapping ranges have been held to establish prima-facie obviousness. See MPEP 2144.05.

The reference does not disclose that the alumina/zinc oxide components contain Lewis acid sites. However, these materials are the same as the presently claimed components and therefore must have the same properties including Lewis Acid sites.

As to claims 8-12, Nakaoko employs HY and USY. See col. 3, lines 8-33.

Art Unit: 1755

The recitations of instant claim 13 can be found in the reference in the abstract.

As to claims 15-22 and 37, the reference employs alumina/zinc oxide. See the abstract.

As to claims 25, 27 and 28, Nakaoko discloses catalysts that contain, for example, 63 wt% alumina and zinc oxide. See Table 2, col. 9.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments of 27 August 2007 are not persuasive. Applicant has presented no evidence that the prior art product cannot be maintained in a fluidized state, larger particles simply requiring correspondingly more powerful airflow. Applicant's inability set forth specific limitations that would establish a particular material or particle size is unfluidizable would cast doubt on the definiteness of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 112(2) should such a limitation be relied upon to establish the patentability of the instant claims over the prior art currently relied upon.

Applicant has presented no evidence of a significant Na₂O content in the dealkalized products of the reference, merely argument and speculation.

Finally, applicant argues that the reference relied upon doesn't contain Lewis acid sites but, fails to rebut the prior examiner's finding that as the same material is claimed, it must possess the same properties, such as Lewis acid sites.

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
